

ACADEMIC TRAINING (AT) Application Process

Academic Training is available to students who hold a J-1 visa. Students can participate in the program before or after the student completes his/her program. However, the student can only work in his/her field of study. For every month a student holds a J-1 visa, he/she is eligible for one month of participation in the Academic Training program. The maximum number of months that can be accumulated is 18.

For more information about Academic Training, please contact the International Student Advisor at the McGlothlin Center for Global Education and Engagement by calling (540) 831-6200 or emailing gloaled@radford.edu.
